(3) An Appellate Rent Tribunal shall consist of one person only (hereinafter referred to as the Presiding Officer of the Appellate Rent Tribunal) to be appointed by the High Court.

(4) No person shall be eligible to be appointed as Presiding Officer of the Appellate Rent Tribunal unless he is a member of the Rajasthan Higher Judicial Service having not less than [three years] experience as such.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (3), the High Court may authorise the Presiding Officer of one Appellate Rent Tribunal to discharge the functions of the Presiding Officer of the another Appellate Rent Tribunal also.

(6) From every final order passed by the Rent Tribunal, an appeal shall lie to the Appellate Rent Tribunal, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the premises is situated and such an appeal shall be filed within its period of [sixty days] from the date of final order along with copy of such final order.

(7) The Appellate Rent Tribunal, upon filing an appeal under Sub-sec. (6), shall serve notice, accompanied by copy of appeal, on the respondent on the date fixed by the Rent Tribunal under Sec. 17 for the appearance of the parties before it. If the respondent fails to appear on the date so fixed before the Appellate Rent Tribunal, he may be proceeded against ex parte in case the final order under Sec. 17 was passed in ex parte proceedings against any party, the Appellate Rent Tribunal shall issue notice, accompanied by copy of appeal, fixing a date not later than thirty days, requiring the respondent to appear before it on the date so fixed and service of such a notice shall be effected through process server of the Tribunal or Civil Court as well as by the registered post, acknowledgment due and notice duly served by any of these methods shall be treated as sufficient service. Where, however, the Appellate Rent Tribunal otherwise considers it necessary so to do in the interest of justice in the facts of the case, it may issue notice of appeal to the respondent in the manner indicated above.

(8) The Appellate Rent Tribunal shall, thereafter, fix a date of hearing which shall not be later than forty five days from the date of service of notice of appeal on the respondent and the appeal shall be disposed of within a period of one hundred and eighty days from the date of service of notice of appeal on the respondent.

(9) Where the Appellate Rent Tribunal considers it necessary in the interest of arriving at a just and proper decision, it may allow filing of additional affidavits or documents at any stage of the proceedings in appeal.

(10) The Appellate Rent Tribunal may in its discretion pass such interlocutory order, during the pendency of the appeal, as it may deem fit.

(11) (a) While deciding the appeal, the Appellate Rent Tribunal may after recording reasons therefore,-

(i) confirm, vary, set aside, reverse or modify the order passed by a Rent Tribunal; or

(ii) if necessary in the interest of justice, remand the case to the Rent Tribunal alongwith such direction as it may deem fit.

(b) The Appellate Rent Tribunal shall issue appropriate recovery certificate according to the decision rendered by it.

(c) The decision of the Appellate Rent Tribunal shall be final and no further appeal or revision shall lie against its order.

(12) On the application of any of the parties and after notice to the parties and after hearing such of them as have desired to be heard, or of its own motion without such notice, the Appellate Rent Tribunal may at an stage transfer any case from one Rent Tribunal to any other Rent Tribunal for disposal.

(13) Where any case has been transferred under Sub-sec. (12), the Rent Tribunal which has thereafter to try or dispose of such case may, subject to any special direction in the order of transfer, proceed from the stage at which it was transferred.

Explanation. - The expression "final order" referred to in Sub-sec. (6) shall mean an order by which any proceeding pending before the Rent Tribunal is finally disposed of.

[19A. Power of Tribunal to order payment of rent and arrears thereof during pendency of petition or appeal. -

On application of the landlord, the Tribunal shall, after hearing the parties to the petition or appeal, as the case may be, order that the tenant shall pay to the landlord all dues on account of rent forthwith and shall continue to pay the rent during the pendency of the petition or appeal, as the case may be, as and when it becomes due.]

20. Execution of the orders. - (1) The Rent Tribunal shall, on application of any party, execute, in the manner prescribed, a final order or any other order passed under this Act by adopting any one or more of the following modes, namely :-

- (a) attachment and sale of the movable or immovable property of the opposite party;
- (b) arrest and detention of the opposite party;
- (c) attachment of any one or more bank accounts of the opposite party and satisfaction of the amount of order to be paid from such account;
- (d) attachment of salary and allowance of a Government servant or employee of any nationalised hank, local authority, corporation, Government company;
- (e) appointing any advocate as Commissioner on such remuneration as may be fixed or deputing any officer of the Tribunal or local administration or local body for execution of the order.
- (f) delivery of possession of the premises to the applicant.

(2) The Tribunal may, in order to execute the final order or another order passed under this Act require the help from the local administration or local body or the police.

(3) If the tenant does not vacate the premises within three months of the date of issue of certificate for recovery of the possession, he shall be liable, from the date of issue of certificate for recovery of possession to pay mesne profits at the rate of 2 times the rent in case of premises let out for residential purpose, at the rate of 3 times the rent in case of premises let out for commercial purposes and at the rate of 3 times the rent in case certificate for recovery of immediate possession has been issued under Sec. 16.

(4) The Rent Tribunal shall conduct the execution proceedings in relation to a final order or any other order passed under this Act in summary manner and dispose of the application for execution made under this section within forty five days from the date of service of notice on opposite party.

Explanation. - Filing of an appeal or other proceeding against the order of issue of certificate for recovery of possession or immediate possession will not save the tenant from his liability to pay mesne profits, at the rates specified under Sub-sec. (3), unless specifically ordered otherwise by the Appellate Rent Tribunal or the Court before which such an order is under challenge and if the order of issue of recovery certificate is finally maintained, the tenant shall be liable to pay mesne profits at the rates specified under Sub-sec. (3) from the date on which the recovery certificate was initially issued.

21. Procedure and powers of the Rent Tribunal and the Appellate Rent Tribunal. -

(1) In every case before the Rent Tribunal and the Appellate Rent Tribunal the evidence of a witness shall be given by affidavit. However, the Rent Tribunal or the Appellate Rent Tribunal, where it appears to it that it is necessary in the interest of justice to call a witness for examination or cross-examination and such witness can be produced, may order attendance for examination or cross-examination of such a witness.

(2) The documents filed before the Rent Tribunal by the petitioner shall be distinctly marked by him as Exh-1, Exh-2 and so on in the red ink and the documents filed by the respondent shall be similarly distinctly marked by him as Exh-A 1, Exh-A 2 and so on in red ink and in the affidavits the documents shall be referred by these exhibit marks and signatures or other parts of the documents referred to in the affidavits shall be distinctly marked by the party filing the document as A to B or C to D and so on in red ink.

CHAPTER - V-A

Appointment of Rent Authority, Tenancy Agreements and Period of Tenancy

22A. Appointment of Rent Authority. -

(1) The State Government may appoint, by notification in the Official Gazette, officers of the Rajasthan Administrative Service not below the rank of a Sub-Divisional Officer as the Rent Authority for the jurisdictional area of every Rent Tribunal to perform functions and exercise powers in the matters specified under Sec. 22-B, 22-D, 22-E, 22-G, 23 and 24 of this Act.

(2) An appeal against the order of the Rent Authority shall lie to the Rent Tribunal within sixty days from the date of order.

(3) Save as expressly provided under this Act, every order of the Rent Authority, if not reversed, altered or modified by the Rent Tribunal in appeal, shall be final and shall not be called in question in any civil court.

22B. Tenancy agreements. -

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, no person shall, after the commencement of the Rajasthan Rent Control (Amendment) Act, 2017 (Act No. 33 of 2017), let or take on rent any premises except by an agreement in writing, and the particulars of such agreement shall be communicated to the Rent Authority by the landlord and tenant jointly, in the form specified in Schedule-D.

(2) Where, in relation to a tenancy created before the commencement of Rajasthan Rent Control (Amendment) Act, 2017 (Act No. 33 of 2017),-

(a) an agreement in writing having already been entered into, the particulars thereof shall be communicated to the Rent Authority in the form specified in Schedule-D;

(b) no agreement in writing was entered into, the landlord and the tenant shall enter into an agreement in writing with regard to that tenancy, and communicate the particulars thereof to the Rent specified in Schedule-D:

Provided that where the landlord and the tenant fail to present jointly a copy of tenancy agreement under clause (a) or (b) or fail to reach an agreement under clause (b), such landlord and the tenant shall separately file the particulars about such tenancy.

(3) Every agreement referred to in sub-section (1) shall be executed before the commencement of tenancy and the agreement required to be executed under clause (b) of sub-section (2) shall be executed within a period of one year from the date of commencement of Rajasthan Rent Control (Amendment) Act, 2017 (Act No. 33 of 2017).

(4) The Rent Authority after receiving such information about tenancy agreement shall make entry of particulars of the agreement in a Register maintained for that purpose containing particulars as per Schedule-D and provide a registration number to the parties.

(5) The information provided as per Sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be taken as evidence of facts relating to tenancy and matters connected therewith and in its absence any statement in the agreement inconsistent with the details filed as per Schedule-D shall not be received as evidence of the facts before the Rent Tribunal or the Appellate Rent Tribunal, as the case may be.

(6) The Rent Authority shall upload the details of all tenancies along with the registration number provided under sub-section (4), in the form and manner prescribed, on its website within fifteen days of the allotment of the registration number.

22C. Period of tenancy. -

(1) All tenancies entered into after the commencement of Rajasthan Rent Control (Amendment) Act, 2017 (Act No. 33 of 2017) shall be for a period as agreed between the landlord and the tenant and as specified in the tenancy agreement.

(2) The tenant may approach the landlord for renewal or extension of the tenancy, within the period agreed to in the tenancy agreement, prior to the end of tenancy period and if agreeable to the landlord may enter into a new tenancy agreement with the landlord on mutually agreed terms and conditions.

(3) If a tenancy for a fixed term ends and has not been renewed or the premises have not been vacated by the tenant at the end of such tenancy, the tenancy shall be deemed to be renewed on a month to month basis on the same terms and conditions as were in the expired tenancy agreement, for a maximum period of six months and shall thereafter be deemed to have expired unless renewed by the landlord by agreement with the tenant in writing.

CHAPTER - V-B

Revision of Rent in Certain Circumstances, Security Deposit, Depositing of Rent in Certain Circumstances, Etc.

22D. Revision of Rent in certain circumstances. -

(1) Where the landlord, after the commencement of tenancy and in agreement with the tenant has incurred expenditure on account of improvement, addition or structural alteration in the premises occupied by the tenant, which does not include repairs necessary to be carried out, the landlord may increase the rent of the premises by an amount as agreed between the landlord and the tenant prior to the commencement of the work and such increase in rent shall become effective from one month after the completion of work.

(2) Where after the rent of a premises has been agreed or fixed, there has been a decrease or diminution or deterioration of accommodation or housing services in the premises, the tenant may claim a reduction in the rent.

(3) The landlord may either restore the premises and the housing services as at the commencement of tenancy or agree for a reduction in rent.

(4) In case of conflict, the landlord or tenant may approach the Rent Authority by filing petition before the Rent Authority and the Authority shall try to resolve the conflict and to arrive at amicable settlement between the landlord and tenant and if no such settlement is arrived at between the parties, he may pass appropriate orders on the basis of material brought on record and by hearing both the parties.

22E. Rent Authority to fix revised rent in the circumstances specified in Section 22D. -

The Rent authority on an application presented by the landlord or tenant in the circumstances specified in Sec. 22-D, shall fix or revise, as the case may be, the rent and other charges payable by the tenant as also fix the date from which the revised rent becomes payable.

22F. Security deposit. -

(1) Save as an agreement to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the landlord to charge a security deposit equal to one month's rent.

(2) The security deposit shall be refunded to the tenant within one month after vacation of the premises, after making due deduction of any liability of the tenant.

(3) Wherever the security deposit is not refunded to the tenant within the period specified in sub-section (2), the tenant may file an application before the Rent Authority for directing the landlord to refund the security deposit.

22G. Depositing of rent with the Rent Authority in certain circumstances. -

Where the landlord does not accept any rent tendered by the tenant in the manner specified in Section 5, or refuses to give a receipt, the tenant may deposit the same periodically, in time, with the Rent Authority.

(2) Wherever in any case there is bona fide doubt about the person or persons to whom the rent is payable, the tenant may deposit such rent with the Rent Authority.

(3) On deposit of the rent, the Rent Authority shall investigate the case and pass an order based on facts of the case.

(4) The amount of rent deposited under this section shall be accounted for in such manner as may be prescribed and shall be kept in a Personal Deposit Account and shall be operated for payment to the landlord or other lawful claimant in the manner, as may be prescribed.

(5) The receipt by the landlord, of rent deposited under sub-section (1) and sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall not operate as admission to the correctness of rent and other fact stated by the tenant while depositing the same.

CHAPTER - VI

Amenities

23. Landlord not to discontinue or withhold amenities enjoyed by the tenant. -

(1) No landlord either himself or acting through any person or any person purporting to act on his behalf, shall discontinue or withhold the amenities enjoyed by the tenant in respect of the premises let out to him. The landlord may, however, discontinue or withhold any amenity with the permission of the [Rent Authority and the Rent Authority] shall grant such permission if it is satisfied that the tenant has not paid the charges in respect of the amenity, which he was liable to pay.

(2) On the petition of the landlord for permission to discontinue or withhold the amenities or on the petition of the tenant for restoration of the amenities, the [Rent Authority] shall issue notices to the other party and after hearing the parties it shall pass such orders as it may deem fit.

(3) During the pendency of the inquiry under this section, the [Rent Authority] may pass such interim orders as it may deem fit.

(4) The [Rent Authority] shall conduct the proceedings under this section in a summary manner and dispose of any application made under this section by the landlord or tenant within sixty days from the date of presentation of petition.

24. Duties of tenant and landlord. -

(1) In the absence of an written agreement, essential repairs in a year involving expenditure upto 5% of the annual rent shall be carried out by the tenant at his own cost and essential repairs involving expenditure in excess of 5% of the annual rent shall be carried, out by the landlord on receiving notice from the tenant :

Provided that where the landlord neglects to undertake essential repairs within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of notice, the tenant shall be at liberty to move the [Rent Authority] for permission to undertake the repairs, alongwith estimate of such repairs, and where permission is granted by the Rent Authority, it shall also pass orders with regard to the recovery of each cost from the landlord by setting off the amount against the rent payable by the tenant.

(2) The provisions of Sub-secs. (2), (3) and (4) of Sec. 23 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the proceeding before [Rent Authority] under this section.

[24A. Disposal of pending proceedings under Sections 23 or 24. -

All the proceedings under Section 23 or 24 pending before the Rent Tribunal on the date of commencement of the Rajasthan Rent Control (Amendment) Act, 2017 (Act No. 33 of 2017) shall be continued and the Rent Tribunal may pass appropriate orders thereon as if Sec. 23 or 24 was not amended by the said Act.]
